

The Cosplay Group

Our group is a charity group of costumers who attend many events in costume to help raise money for charities and also various public events such as film premiers

What we'll be doing is as the train goes past one way we'll be staging a mock fight between the heroes and the villains